What’s On
at the Museum of Natural History
September - December 2017

MODERN NEUROSCIENCE IN ACTION
10 March 2017 - 1 January 2018

Neuroscience is transforming what we know about our brains, from birth to the end of life.
Special exhibition and events programme in partnership with Oxford Neuroscience.

www.braindiaries.org
#braindiaries

A WINDOW ON THE BRAIN
Thursday 2 November 7-9.30pm
See the brain in a new light through theatre, music, and neuroscience. Celebrating the launch of the Wellcome Centre for Integrative Neuroimaging (WIN).

www.bit.ly/mnhevents

EVOLUTION OF THE BRAIN MASTERCLASS
Saturday 4 November 10am-1pm
Using the Museum’s collections neuroscientist Professor Zoltán Molnár will lead you through the amazing development and adaptations of the vertebrate brain.
Tickets £25
www.bit.ly/mnhtickets

Into the Woodlands
Opens 30 November
Special exhibition
Wytham Room, First Floor
Eight hundred years ago, the Charter of the Forest gifted public access to Britain’s woodlands, to be used and enjoyed by all. Marking this anniversary, and celebrating 75 years of Wytham Woods, this display features woodland-inspired work by Robert Macfarlane, Stanley Donwood, Robin Wilson, Rosie Farlar-Cholmeley and Richard Lawrence.

Cover Image, above and right: Stanley Donwood
REGULAR EVENTS

Spotlight Specimens
Monday, Thursday 2:30-3:15pm
Join a Magna Carta-uncovered talk about our magnifying glass and magnified images, in the Pitt Rivers Museum.

Adults and young people families

Museum tour for toddlers. Under 5s.
Every Sunday, 2-4pm, Ages 2-4.

Late Night: Robert Macfarlane & Stanley T. T. Hickson
Friday 21 February, 7pm
WildCru's Dr Amy Dickman discusses her research on map hunting and the search for tigers.

Adults

Super Science Saturday
Sat 25 Nov, 12-4pm
Invent, investigate and celebrate all things scientific! After a fantastic week of science at the Oxford Science Festival, join us for more experiments and demonstrations.

Ages 8+

Mind-altering Drugs: A Safer Way Forward?
Mon 13 Nov, 7-8pm
Drawing on experience of working clinically with those living with dementia and their carers, Morten Kringelbach and Hugh McManners investigate the treatment of mental health conditions.

Age of Nature
Tue 12 Dec, 2.30-4pm

Ages 8+

Human festival.
Fri 17 Nov, 7-10pm
With the Pitt Rivers Museum. Part of Being Human Festival.

Lost Late: Night at the Museums
Fri 17 Nov, 7-10pm
A group enabling older people, including those living with dementia, to explore and enjoy the collection.

£3

Learning to Read: Biology to Behaviour
Wed 22 Nov, 6.30-7.30pm
Join Dr Tim Healing to discover the natural history of Darwin’s original specimens.

£5. Book at: www.torch.ox.ac.uk/lost

Experiments, Big Theory
Fri 13 Oct, 7-8pm
The Wolves of Yellowstone

All events are free unless stated

Leiba S. T. T. T. T. Hickson

Spotlight Specimens
Monday, Thursday 2:30-3:15pm
Join a Magna Carta-uncovered talk about our magnifying glass and magnified images, in the Pitt Rivers Museum.

Adults and young people families

Museum tour for toddlers. Under 5s.
Every Sunday, 2-4pm, Ages 2-4.

Late Night: Robert Macfarlane & Stanley T. T. Hickson
Friday 21 February, 7pm
WildCru’s Dr Amy Dickman discusses her research on map hunting and the search for tigers.

Adults

Super Science Saturday
Sat 25 Nov, 12-4pm
Invent, investigate and celebrate all things scientific! After a fantastic week of science at the Oxford Science Festival, join us for more experiments and demonstrations.

Ages 8+

Mind-altering Drugs: A Safer Way Forward?
Mon 13 Nov, 7-8pm
Drawing on experience of working clinically with those living with dementia and their carers, Morten Kringelbach and Hugh McManners investigate the treatment of mental health conditions.

Age of Nature
Tue 12 Dec, 2.30-4pm

Ages 8+

Human festival.
Fri 17 Nov, 7-10pm
With the Pitt Rivers Museum. Part of Being Human Festival.

Lost Late: Night at the Museums
Fri 17 Nov, 7-10pm
A group enabling older people, including those living with dementia, to explore and enjoy the collection.

£3

Learning to Read: Biology to Behaviour
Wed 22 Nov, 6.30-7.30pm
Join Dr Tim Healing to discover the natural history of Darwin’s original specimens.

£5. Book at: www.torch.ox.ac.uk/lost